THE WHY MATTERS

Luke 9:57-62

1) When it comes to change, God is more concerned with the why of your heart than the words from your lips.

a) The why of comfort

INSIGHT: Many follow Jesus wanting to be thrilled but not changed.

b) The why of competing allegiances

INSIGHT: Many are willing to identify with Jesus, but their commitment is superficial.

c) The why of timing

INSIGHT: When Jesus makes a request, postponement is equal to rejection.

2) Change will occur in our lives when our “why” is: I love Him more.

TRUTH: It boils down to a battle between our terms and His terms.

RESPONSE: We don’t know the response of the people in this passage, but we do know our own.

What is the “why” in my heart that keeps me from allowing God to change me?

What step can I take today to start the process of change?
