

TEXT: 2 Peter 1:16-21

In this passage, Peter is writing to give an apologetical argument to support the second coming of Christ as a trustworthy promise. Secondarily, he gives us an apologetical argument for the trustworthiness of the Bible.

Reasons we can trust the Bible:

The Bible contains	s accour	nts (vv. 16-18).
•	testimony
•	accuracy
•	accuracy
The Bible has evic	lence of being	(vv. 19-21)
• Jesus	dence of being the Old Testament a the New Testament.
• Jesus	the Old Testament a	and
• Jesus	the Old Testament a the New Testament. of scripture was affirmed a	and
• Jesus • The	the Old Testament a the New Testament. of scripture was affirmed a	and
• Jesus • The	the Old Testament a the New Testament. of scripture was affirmed a	and
• Jesus • The	the Old Testament a the New Testament. of scripture was affirmed a	and

cept reasor	to the	Bible (v. 19	?).

Additional resources:

- The Questions Christians Hope No One Will Ask by Mark Mittelberg
- ullet The Reason for God by Timothy Keller
- When Skeptics Ask by Norman L. Geisler
- genesisapologetics.com/bible
- alwaysbeready.com/can-we-trust-the-bible

